Graduation Requirements for the Community, Environment and Planning Major
Department of Urban Design and Planning in the College of Built Environments

✔ Individual Study Plan (ISP) that maps out your course of study for your two years in CEP.

✔ [30 Credits] CEP’s Six Core Courses taken in sequence (CEP 301, 302, 303, 460, 461, 462)
  * A student is allowed to substitute one core course, excluding the first and last, with study abroad
  * Students can choose to be evaluated with a standard 4.0 scale or C/NC. All students must complete written narrative evaluations

✔ [25 Credits] Methods: upper-division coursework appropriate to a student’s objectives and career pathway. Methods may include courses such as qualitative and quantitative methods from the social, natural, and physical sciences; critical theory and analysis; art and design; group dynamics and facilitation; ethics and philosophy; speech communications; writing; and research methods.
  * Only 15 of these credits can overlap with requirements for another major
  * Minor requirements can count towards methods credits, but minors must be 60% different than any major. (ex. of the 30-credit Urban Planning minor, only 12 credits can overlap with CEP-major credits)

✔ [5 Credits] Diversity: Each student must take at least 5-credits that critically analyzes and addresses social constructs and/or issues from a different perspective than that of our dominant culture.
  * This course must be approved by CEP Staff.

✔ [5 Credits] Internship and Accompanying CEP 446 course
  * Internships must equal 120-150 hours, over at least a 3-month period
  * Students and their supervisor must fill out a learning contract prior to beginning the internship and a performance evaluation at the end

✔ [10 Credits] Student Governance and Leadership Retreats (CEP 400 and CEP 300)
  * Two-hour Friday morning Governance
  * Fall and Spring retreats, both Junior and Senior Year

✔ [2-6 Credits] Senior Project Prep Seminar (CEP 490 and 491)
  * Fall and Winter preparatory courses that can be taken for variable credit

✔ Senior Capstone Project
  * Includes project proposal completed in the Fall of a student’s final year, professional presentation in May, and final product in June
  * Credit is give through the CEP 462 course

✔ CEP Portfolio
  * Personalized web-based portfolio that documents, demonstrates, and contextualizes your experience in CEP and the UW
  * Includes final reflective statement of your learning experience
